Location

The large and affluent town of Maidenhead in Berkshire lies south of the River Thames and is located 30 miles west of Central London within close proximity of Marlow, Windsor and High Wycombe.

The town centre's regeneration programme which is now well underway will see the town benefit from a new retail triangle, an upgraded transport interchange and the restoring of the old waterways creating a fabulous urban living, shopping and entertaining area. The proximity to the River Thames combined with the excellent choice of amenities and transport links makes Maidenhead a great place to work and visit, providing fantastic opportunities to local retailers.

Description

An attractive double fronted retail premises arranged over three trading floors. Maybe suitable for a variety of uses (subject to the usual consents).
