Location

Located within the centre of Slough the accommodation can be found within the Old Library development which includes the Moxy and Residents Inn hotels and Novus Apartments. Positioned opposite the landmark Curve building and within walking distance of the railway and bus station.

The accommodation fronts the High Street and is within close proximity to multiple national and independent retailers, restaurants, Queensmere and Observatory Shopping Centres.

Description

The accommodation can be found at ground floor level forming two lettable units, which could be reconfigured to offer either a larger or smaller space to suit the prospective tenants' needs.

The retail space is presented in shell and core specification benefiting from 3.4m internal height. There is a small area within unit 1 where the height is reduced to 2.8m.

The units benefit from 35mm water, gas and electric supplies and drainage. A refuse and condenser enclosure has been allocated to the units within the service yard, where rear servicing to the units can also be found.
